Enclosed please find our Post Election report. This report is late, and I regret this. In an email from the FEC dated Nov. 13, 2012 entitled, 'New Election Cycle Begins', read the following, "The campaigns will disclose their separate election-cycle receipts and disbursements on the Post-Election Detailed Summary Page ... required with the Post-General election report due December 6 (or for campaigns that were not in the general election, with the Year-End report due January 31)."

I regret that I interpreted the bolded phrase above to mean that since we did not actively participate in the General Election with any campaign expenditures, our Post Election report would not be due until our Year End report.

On Dec. 14, the FEC sent me a letter indicating the FEC had not received our Post Election report. I was on vacation throughout the month of December, returning on January 1, 2013. I picked up this letter from our Post Office box on January 4, 2013. At which time I began preparing the Post Election report, enclosed.

I apologize for this misunderstanding on my part, and the lateness of this report.

Sincerely,

David R. Remer
